COMMENT ON THE SIFUATION.

The harvest of the German submarine campaign from reports received Saturday increased the total loss of tonnage by 22,271 tons. Four Eritish and three Norwegian steamers are the latest victims of the U-boat blockade measures. The British tonnage totaled 15,795 tons and the Norwegian 6476. The total number of vessels destroyed in the period of submarine operations on February 1 to 9 inclusive is said to be eighty-nine, of which twenty-one were neutral vessels. During that period, it is stated, more than 1100 vessels arrived at or salled unharmed from ports from the United Kingdom. Two American vessels, the Rochester and Orleans, left New York on Saturday for Bordeaux.

WHAT WOULD RESULT.

It is estimated the bill would provide for the training of 500,-000 boys annually, each of whom would be furloughed into a reserve for nine years after his training period. With allowances for shrinkage of classes due to various causes as the years pass, this plan would give a total force of 3,165,000 men who had had six months' training, at the end of the first nine-year cycle, all subject to call for service only in the event of a "defensive" war or the imminence thereof.

The bifl disagrees with the theory of the army – General Staff as to the amount of training necessary to make a soldier fit to go on the battle lines, although it contemplates about the total strength proposed by staff officers. While the committee report does not indicate any belief that Congress will act on the measure at this session, the bill brings to a definite head the universal service discussion of the last few months and offers a specific plan on which public sentiment can crystallize. The bill requires six months' training without pay for all youths during their nineteenth year. Exemptions are confined to the members of the regular army

BIG MUNITIONS PLANT BURNS; LOSS FOUR MILLION DOLLARS.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 10.—The machine shop building of the Union Switch and Signal Company, the largest plant for the manufacture of switch signals in the United States and until recently engaged in filling munition orders for the European governments, located at Swissvale, a suburb, was destroyed by fire early tonight with a loss estimated at $4,000,000.

The cause of the fire has not been determined, although officials of the company believe it resulted from spontaneous combustion.

The blase started in the packing department of the building. Only a few men were at work in the build-company, A. L. Humphrey, no shells had been manufactured at the plant since last November. The Union Switch and Signal Company, which was founded by the late Geo Westinghouse in 1881, was recentaken over by the Westingho Airbrake Company.

In government circles here it is said the Austro-Hungarian government will leave the matter entirely in the hands of the American government, following a policy designed to throw on America responsibility for any further development.

ASHINGTON, Feb. 10. Thousands of telegrams from different parts of the country steps to maintain peace between the United States and Germany reached the White House to-day. Many of them were the same in language and evidently were the result of an organized movement. Jesse Pomerov.

The celebrated lifer at the Charleston (Mass.) prison, who, after over forty years of solitary confinement, has had his sentence commuted forty years of solitary confinement, has had his sentence commuted and is given the same privileges as other lifers. Pomeroy was first convicted in 1874, at the age of 15, and sentenced to eighteen months in a reform school for his attacks upon several children, who were tied to logs, posts and boards and badly beaten. Shortly after his release Pomeroy attacked and killed several small children in South Boston and Chelsea, all of whom he mutilated very badly. The last of his victims was little 5-year-old Horace Millen of South Boston, whose body still held the long knife with which he was killed. The police found a footprint and later identified it as belonging to young Pomeroy. Pomeroy later confessed to this and other murders of small children. He was convicted and sentenced to be hanged, in 1878, but his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment and "solitary confinement at hard fabor," by Gov. Rice's council, owing to his youth. Many attempts have been made to have him given the same treatment as other lifers, but none were successful till Gov. McCall signed the papers today. January 26, 1917.

"It is a time," he said, "of anxiety for us all, a time of heavy responsibility for some of us. We are looking forward future and we are striving to read what it holds in store for read what it holds in store for us and for our country. We can hardly close our eyes to the fact that we are standing near to the verge of the war which has for two and a half years wasted the great empires of Europe and brought untold wes to mankind. Ominous though the situation may seem, there always is the hope that our country may be spared the terrible calamity of being forced into the conflict. think, to think earnessiy and deliberately. It is a time for coolness and self-restraint, rather than for surrender to the natural impulses which are aroused by great events affecting, the national honor, the national duty and the national welfare of our country.

"I can only say this, that with the same patience, the same forbearance, the same deliberation and care with which he has met the other difficulties in our foreign affairs, the President will meet the present crisis. The nation can trust him to act justly and honorably and fearlessly, whatever may lie before us. In his hands the destiny of the United States is sure; the national honor is safe."

The Secretary took for his sure: the national honor is safe."

The Secretary took for his subject, "College Spirit." The loyalty of a college man for his alma mater, he said, is a sentiment making for patriotism because it is one of the elements of national life not based on material interest or selish motive.

"We should rejoice," he continued, "that in some things at least we can be sentimental in an age when the general disposition of men is to reduce everything to terms of utility and when the standard of excellence is sought in answering the question. To what material use can it be put. That question embodies, to my mind, the general tendency of modern thought toward the various phases of the relationship of man to man and of man to society."

The American people—and I think they are not different from other peoples—have been growing more and more utilitarian in these later years; their thoughts and acts more and more influenced by what is called the practical and less and less by what is called the ideal. Immediate and tangible benefit is the apparent goal of American effort.

"It is, indeed, a commentary on the American people that not a few thinking men have been asking with serious concern: Have American eyes grown dim to the achievements of the past? Has the blood of patriotism ceased to throb in American velns? Have he forgotten that our heritage of liberty was sealed with the lives of devoted men and that it is a sacred trust which we must hold and transmit unimpaired to the generations to come?

"I believe most army that every one of these questions can be answered in the negative. I believe that at heart the American people are loyal and particit. Put to the test I do not fear the outcome. And yet triotic. Put to the test I do not fear the outcome. And yet I feel that the spread of materialism has been a menace to our national character, to which we should not be indifferent, a menace which ought not and must not continue.

"To preserve in their high place in the life of the republic those great impulses which have made us a virile and proud nation we must cultivate sentiment and emphasize the ideal more than we have done in recent years. We must cease measuring accomplishment by dollars and cents. Sentiment of every sort, provided its object is noble, is worth while."

FRANCE FAVORS CHECKING SYSTEM.

[A. P. FORMICH CORRESPONDENCE.]
PARIS, Jan. 31.—Further efforts are being made to extend the popularity of the checking system in France. Some of the railway companies have decided that all provincial stations may hereafter accept payment in certain specified forms of checks. In order to induce small shippers to adopt this form of payment, the companies will allow shippers who pay in checks to settle their accounts weekly instead of daily as heretofore required.

PARIS VERSION.

PARIS, Feb. 10.—The War Office tonight reports:

"West of Pont-a-Mousson we carried out a surprise attack and brought back ten prisoners.

"On both banks of the Meuse there were spirited reciprocal artiliery actions. No infantry action occurred. On the rest of the front there was the usual cannonade.

"Last night our airplanes bombarded a number of places, notably Hauts Fourneux, Rombach and stations at Mainieres and Tergnier and railroads and factories in the Serre Valley, a train being derailed and set fire near St. Ingbert.

"Yesterday aumerous aerial combats took place. Two enemy machines, one of them a triplane, fell into our hands. They were brought down by our pilots, one of whom was Lieut. Guynemer, who thus registered his 'thirty-first victory."

eenth street and Archer avenue. The ordinance calls for completion of the project within two years.

The terminal market is expected to relieve the congestion of South Water street and incidentally assist in reducing the cost of foodstuffs in the south and west sides.

The most active opposition to the ordinance came from the Fairbanks Company, which claimed that the viaduct would damage their property. Their claims were reviewed by John F. Wallace's terminal commission and the concusion was reached that the denands of the company were not justified in view of the doubtful legality of their occupancy of Blackwell street. of Staff, to be the minimum of safety for the training of even defensive soldiers. A universal training bill, carrying the indorsement of virtually the entire membership of the General Staff and based on a year's training, is almost ready for final submission to Secretary Baker and the President. Neither official has committed himself on the principle of universal training.

AS A PRIME DUTY. AS A PRIME DUTY.

The committee measure, which is based on that prepared by Maj. Moseley, formerly of the Army General Staff fixes military training as a duty of citileast begun or exemption

All government employment would be closed to those who could not produce certificates of training or exemption and private employers would be similarly prohibited from employing any man who has evaded his military service. A blanket penalty with a maximum of $1000 fine and a year's imprisonment for each offense is provided for violation of any section of the act except that those who evade training when liable for it must serve a longer time.

For nine years, or until he has passed his twenty-eighth year, each reservist would be required to appear in person before the registration authorities of his military district. In case of war the youngest classes would be called first. After his twenty-eighth year a reservist would pass into the great body of the unorganized militia, subject only to the general laws.

Building.

The bill provides no organization after the troops leave training, but the President is given wide latitude in this regard. No changes in the present National Guard system are provided for. Training would be in military districts comprising single States or groups of small States, and the establishments by lease or purchase of training cantonments in each district is directed. Registration and medical examining boards for each district or subdivision also would be appointed by the President, the word of the latter as to physical fitness to be final, while action of the latter as to physical fitness to be final, while action of the latter as to physical fitness to be final, while action of the state of training would be appointed by the President, the word of the latter as to physical fitness to be final, while action of the state of the parents or guardians.

PRELIMINARY TRAINING.

To encourage preliminary military training such as that given in schools, credit to a maximum of three months, or one-half he to tal required period might be allowed. The applicant could elect in strikes or other industrial disputes.

Official of the General Staff are inclined to disapprove the bill, particularly because of the six months training period. They declare that training such as that given in schools, credit to a maximum of three months, or one-half he to tal required period might be allowed. The applicant could elect in strikes or other industrial disputes.

There could no longer be even an artificial pretense to secrecy. They tried to make a terrible and black case against me. In the meantime every effort was made to coerce me, but in vain. They attempted to extradite me from Switzerland with a plea that I had stolen invaluable court jewelry. But I defied the court, the Prince and his officials.

I feared not publicity. The glare of the world had no terror for me, because I felt that I was fighting for my liberty. But I was a mother and it was through my children that I suffered the most. Through all the strife with the Saxon court, which immediately followed my desertion, I was always begging to be allowed to see the children I loved so dearly. I at once found out that I could not give them up. I felt miserable away from them, and as the days passed by my grief became so heavy that often I seriously considered the taking away my own life.

About six weeks after taking the est and eldest children—my youngest in a hand carriage while my eldest walked beside her tutor. I slowly walked towards them and was about to kiss my little baby in the carriage when the attendants recognised me. In another moment several court officials were on the spot. I begged them to allow me to take my little once in my arms, just for one single moment. They were to take my little once in my arms, just for one single moment. They were to take my little once in my arms, just for one single moment. They was all built on one pattern. But my former husband, the King, was the one most angered as a result of my "expose of royalties," and to my motherly entreaties. They tore me away from my children and forced me to leave the palace grounds.

SECOND ATTEMPT. Two days later I made an attempt to enter the palace, but was instantto enter the palace, but was instantly recognized. Again I begged them to allow me to be with my children just one single moment, and again was forced to leave the grounds. They said the King was away. My former husband had then become the King of Saxony. They told me the King of Saxony. They told me the King's orders were that I must not be permitted to see my children. There was, however, a great commotion created in the palace grounds. My screams and cries had invited a large crowd. Among local Catholics recently there has been a revival of the idea that Bishop Glasa himself may be named for the position. They point out that he has had the advantage of actual service in Episcopal work in the Salt Lake diocese, and that his many years of residence in Los Angeles, and his high position in educational affairs, have given him a personal acquaintance regarding affairs of the local diocese that it would take a new bishop many months to acquire, while his standing as an educator, and his general popularity among Catholics and non-Catholics alike, would make him a most acceptable incumbent of the position that has remained vacant for more than sixteen months.

Close friends of Mr. Sullivan scouted the idea that his ill health had prompted him to end his life. Serseant of Detectives O'Brien, who is in charge of the search for Mr. Sullivan, stated yesterday he was baffied for the time being. He declared the physical evidence pointed to a sudden illness and that in his claim on the aged man was probably being cared for by some acquaintance.

When Mr. Sullivan left his rooms at Garland Hall, he was in a preoccupied condition of mind. His watch, keys and a few papers were found on the dresser. The man, evidently a foreigner, was discovered in the rear parlor by Mrs. Stubbs, who became panicstricken and called her partner. The intruder, when discovered, asked permission to play on the plano, but his musical craving was promptly squelched by the arrival of Mrs. Boullioun,

The man was short and heavy set, wore a brown suit and a flaring red necktie. He was swarthy and may have been an Italian. The police were notified, but no trace of the intruder was found.

from Salt Lake City yesterday for a week's visit in Los Angeles. The particular object of his visit is to participate in the celebration of the birthday anniversary of his sister. Mrs. A. Newton Pope, No. 1224 Delaware drive, today, but last night the bishop expressed delight at being able to revel in Southern California sunshine again for a few days. Sait Lake City recently has been enduring very disagreeable winter weather, he says.

Bishop Glass declared that he has absolutely no news as to the appointment of a new bishop for the diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles, and that there has not been, to his knowledge, any similar vacancy of such length in any important diocese in America.

"This diocese surely ought to get a good bishop when the appointment is finally made," remarked Bishop Glass. "If length of time in make it visit the lighthouse today were ing the selection is any criterion."

Los Angeles Tire Dealers Appointed Goodyear Service Stations

F you have been disappointed in finding your own dealer out of stock in Goodyears, you can end this annoyance from now on.

Regular Goodyear Service Stations have been appointed in Los Angeles who carry at all times Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Tubes in every size, and Goodyear Accessories. If you will call on one of these dealers you will receive tire service you have probably never known

One out of every five cars in the country today is enjoying the longer mileage and the lower mileage cost of Goodyear Tires.

The extraordinary favoritism shown this particular tire would be even larger than this if everyone who asked for Goodyears got them.

For Goodyear Service Station Dealers are not content in merely selling you Goodyear Tires, Goodyear Tubes and Goodyear Accessories. Their interest continues until you have had maximum mileage and satisfaction from them.

They all have the same purpose, the same dispositionto hold your business by getting your friendship, by giving you the service you have a right to expect.

This service is given you over and above the extra mileage built into Goodyear Tires, which makes them go farther and last longer, and so cost you less in the end.

TREND OF CURRENT POLITICAL THOUGHT AND ACTION.

Reports that City Attorney Stephens will not be a candidate at the May primaries to succeed himself are a bit premature. Mr. Stephens said yesterday that while he has not definitely decided to enter the race it is more than probable that he will do so. He says his decision is contingent upon a personal matter, but at the present he believes he will endeavor to retain the position. As a result of the announcement there is little probability of Howard Robertson, who is the City Attorney's capable chief deputy, being a candidate. He is ready, however, to tose his sombrero into the ring if his superior officer finally decides to retire from the political arens.

One certain candidate will be Warren Williams, present City Prosecutor. He has not made a formal announcement, but his friends say he is going to run and they believe he will make a fast race. He has been identified with local politics for a long time and has a large following. It is understood that the relations between him and the incumbent are pleasant and if both are candidates there will be no mud-slinging.

V CHURCH. RIVERSIDE, Feb. 10.—Head RIVERSIDE, Feb. 10.—Headed by the signatures of W. G. Fraser, pres-ident of the Riverside Orange Com-pany, Ltd., and W. G. Irving, for-mer City Attorney, a telegram bear-ing the names of numerous promi-nent citizens has been forwarded to President Wilson in protest of the recent utterances of Senator Works in regard to the diplomatic break with Germany.

The message is phrased as follows:

"We, the undersigned citizens of Riverside county, California, being members of various political parties, deplore the attitude taken by Senator Works in his address to the Senate of Tuesday last, in reference to your views, and your action, in the unfortunate situation now existing between the United States and Germany, and we feel sure that Senator Works does not express the sentiments of even a small minority of the people of California."

PASADENA MAN SELLS • OFFICE BUILDING

PORTLAND, Feb. 10.—C. K. Henry, Pasadena millionaire, today is richer by $350,000 as the result of the sale of a fine downtown office building here for that sum to T. J. Seufert, formerly a cannery man at The Dailes, Or., who is now a resident of Portland and a lumberman.

In accepting title to the building Mr. Seufert assumes the existing mortgage of $150,000. He tenders more than $100,000 worth of securities and the balance in realestate properties.

In selling the building which bears his name, C. K. Henry, who was once heavily interested in Portland realty of various classes, has disposed of his final holding in Portland. He removed his residence a few years ago to Pasadena.

IT JEWEL GAS RANGES

AS APPLIANCE CO., 639 South Hill St.

The assumption of Homer Lea, a strategist of world reputation, was that an enemy attacking Los Angeles would land at Santa Monica, using the electric cars to transport troops to this city; that San Diego would be cut off from Los Angeles by the simple expedient of anchoring a gunboat off San Juan Capistrano, where the Santa Fetracks run close to the water, and shooting all cars off the track as they attempted to go from one city to the other.

The enemy would then fortify El Cajon Pass and Tehachepi Pass, the two gateways into Southern California. Once the enemy were in possession here with these passes fortified, it would be impossible ever to take hack this section by an attack from the land side, for the reason that our army, in attempting the recapture of Southern California, would be compelled to approach the fortified enemy over a desert. Both passes are flanked by deserts.

These being the facts, what are we going to do about it?

THE CRUX OF IT.

One fact stands out with attalian clearnose.

THE CRUX OF IT.

One fact stands out with striking clearness.

WHICHEVER SIDE GETS TROOPS INTO LOS ANGELES FIRST WILD HOLD THE PLACE AGAINST THE OTHER. ONCE HERE IN FORCE, IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT FOR THE ENEMY TO DISLODGE US. ONCE HERE IN FORCE, IT WOULD BE UTTERLY IMPOSSIBLE FOR US TO DISLODGE THE ENEMY.

In modern transportation con-To DISLODGE THE ENEMY,
In modern transportation conditions the enemy can land on these shores with astenishing rapidity. To protect Los Angeles, then, our troops must actually be here and ready. It will be fatal to rely upon rushing them in after hostilities start.

Coming down to concrete de-fenses, the following are the es-sentials: A large mobile force of infantly, owalry and field artillery is needed. There ought to be a big post somewhere near Inglewood. The garrison for this post should be at least a brigade, and preferably a divi-aion.

There should be several large guns mounted on railroad car-aion.

There should be several large guns mounted on railroad carriages ready to be run along the coast from Santa Monica to Balboa. The network of Pacific

Our big guns, from points of concealment, would force the warships and transports to stand ten miles out to sea. The targets for our guns would be in plain sight. You can't hide a warship. The location of our railroad batteries, on the other hand, would not be disclosed to the enemy. Our guns would be hidden.

His soldiers, coming ashore, would be in range of our field batteries, but our defending soldiers would be out of range of the secondary batteries of the warships.

In other words, the enemy would have his big guns against our big guns, but he would have no secondary batteries against our secondary batteries against our secondary batteries.

ON CATALINA.

ON CATALINA.

ON CATALINA.

The plans of the strategists of the army and navy also contemplate the construction of heavy fortifications and great guns on Catalina and other islands. The object, of course, is clear.

By fortifying these islands the enemy would be prevented from using Catalina as a harbor for refitting transports and as a base for attacking the coast. Also the guns at Catalina would interfere with the enemy's plan of standing ten miles out to sea, out of range of our big shore batteries, and sending his men to land in small boats. Guns on Catalina would tend to make the offshore positions of the ships, supporting the landing parties by their guns, uncomfurtable and untrable.

RAILROAD SIDE.

RAILROAD SIDE.

From the viewpoint of military transportation from the East, there are four passes at present in general railroad use, with a fifth possibility. In the far southern end of the State is the trail across the desert over the Beaumont grade and on to Yuma. Above this lies El Cajon Pass, utilized by two of the transcontinental lines.

A center pass, now little used, or even thought of by any but military strategists, perhaps, lies through the Owens River Valley, across the Nevada divide and then on east. The best-known route, that of the old gold hunters across the Sierras, runs through the American River Canyon, connecting Utah and California, while the far-RAILROAD SIDE.

thest northern pass to the east is through the Feather River Canyon.

All of these canyons carry through them the wealth of California's orchards, gardens, mines and oil wells. They bring the manufactured products of the East and the great annual crop of tourists. They are gateways through powerful natural walls, far more difficult of surmounting than the ancient wall which enfolded China.

Should an invading army be of such proportions that it could speedily overcome any show of resistance here, the first rush of enemy troops would be to the mountain passes. The destruction of railroad lines through these would make the task of getting an army of defenders back into Southern California as difficult as it has been for the Italians to enter Austria, if not more so.

Invaders might make this district their self-sustaining empire. No other State in the Union has the same abundance of natural resources, furnishing everything for the manufacture of war munitions, food supplies and other material necessities. The remarkable scientific achievements, the minute efficiency details and the general perseverance of a German invading force would, for example, turn this into one of the world's mightlest laboratories and workshops in a period of a few months.

This drawing is worthy of the most careful study by every citizen of Los Angeles and the South. It shows how we would be at the mercy of an enemy in force landing on our unprotected shores; how easy it would be for this enemy to seize the great naval oil reserve in Kern county; how an enemy, landed at San Quintin, Turtle Bay or Magdalena Bay could reach the city by striking through Imperial Valley; the routes of the steam and electric rallways, the mountain passeskeys to the land situation—and, lastly, what we have in the way of defense, now and hoped for.

One great question for the proper protection of California naturally lies with the railroads. Have the transcontinental lines the equipment, management and general facilities for taking care of a tremendous daily influx of troops and supplies to sustain them after their arrival?

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS. MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

Traffic managers, right-of-way experts, equipment engineers and others connected with the transcontinental roads all express optimism as to what might be done in a crists. Taxed to the utmost limit of their resourcefulness, officials of the Southern Pacific declared that they might transport in the neighborhood of 100,000 men a day for several days.

Giving their lines over entirely to movement of troops and their accountements, as many as six trains, consisting each of ten passenger coaches and an equal number of basgage coaches, could be moved in an hour. This could be continued through a day of twenty-four hours for a period of three or four days, possibly.

The undertaking would reach the height of American efficiency and endurance, and the officials declared that this move-

Council for action.

ESTIMATES SECURED.

Two separate ideas will be presented. The first, which will have a hearing the early part of the week, is that of the committee for immediate relief. Realising that the erection of a new jail would take time, and desirous of obtaining an immediate change in the present conditions, this committee investigated, drew up plans and asked for estimates from various contractors on certain improvements and changes. These changes, it is, believed, would cost about $3000.

Although the male prisoners received the attention of the work is directed toward bettering the condition of the women prisoners. The resolution suggests hot water plumbing and an extra bath for the women's quarters, so that infectious cases may be isolated. Doors for the bathrooms are asked for in the name of decency and sanitary drinking cups and tollets; seats for all the women prisoners in the "parior," or recreation hall; the creation of a roof garden on top of the jail for the prisoners, and a thorough inspection shows them to be suffering from contagious diseases, it is recommended that they begiven proper medical treatment, for which funds should be appropriated.

The expense of these new improvements, the committee states, would be nothing compared to the benefits to be derived by the city from this work. And it would give the prisoners a sanitary place in which to stay for the present.

It is also proposed that the second floor of the Hollywood Police Station be turned into special quarters for women prisoners. There are half a dozen large, airy rooms above the police and fire stations there, which the association believes could be advantageously used to keep some of the women prisoners. We doubt if such an assortment of wonderful suits was ever brought to Los Angeles at $25. Many of them-we might even say most of them-were never intended for the $25 price mark. That is apparent as soon as you look at them.

There are suits for every purpose. Suits for young women who require the utmost of sports fashions. Suits so styled that we may call them "semi sports" modes. Smartly tailored garments for street wear. Practical motoring suits of such color that they do not readily show dust.

We have illustrated as many styles as space will permit and there are more not pictured. In fact, we are unable to say how many styles there are as shipments are arriving every day and new ones will have come after this advertisement is written.

HOPEFUL VIEW OF THE CRISIS WITH GERMANY.

The Times has strong hopes this morning that the crisis between the United States and Germany will pass without war. The President has made it clear that it is his determination to avoid plunging this country into the European conflict if he can possibly do so with honor. With a fine moral courage, he has declared that no technical rupture of American rights shall lead him to declare war.

Germany appears to be equally anxious to avoid actual armed hostilities between the two countries.

There will be no accidental stumbling into battle on the part of these two powers. The President has apparently taken the position that a declaration of war will come only in the event that Germany commits some deliberate and intentional assault against American life upon the high seas. In taking this position, Mr. Wilson is actuated by the highest motives. He declared his position in an address made last year before the National Press Club in Washington. He said that he believed the world to be in grave danger of slipping down from modera civilization back into the dark ages. Such a reversion has followed lesser wars than this several times during the ages. than this several times during the ages. The President feels that it is America's responsibility to the world to stand apart from this retrogression to barbarism—to of-fer an anchorage and a refuge, to civiliza-tion; to remain sane when all other great nations have gone mad. This responsibility in the mind of the President overweighs any technical affront that has been offered thus far to the United States by any of the beiligerents.

During the past three years the United

Having stood calm and cool in the face of Having stood calm and cool in the face of extreme provocation, the President will not be drawn into the chaos of war unless the provocation is deliberate and war (from the test of national honor) unavoidable. From this position the President can, of course, be driven into war. The perpetration by Germany of any compelling outrage will make further peace impossible and even undestable.

It would seem, however, that strong in fluences will work for the prevention of such overt acts of hostility. The strongest

NON-PATING TEXANS.

The union-laborites of Texas are opposed to the convention to amend the State Constitution. Texas has now an antigarulabment of wage-law which enables members of the unions to spend their wages for bear and fobacco and tributes to Sam Gompers and saves their earnings from being sarnisheed by ruthless minions of capital to whom they may be indebted for provisions and flour.

The motio of the labor leaders of Texas is that of ancient Pistol—

"Base is the slave who pays."

NO CIGARETTES.

The Kansas House of Representatives has passed a bill prohibiting the circulation in Kansas of any newspaper containing eigeretic advertising. The press telegrams do, not state whether the penalty imposed for violation of the law is death or only imprisonment for life. Neither does it appear how the proprietors of newspapers published in Missouri or California or other godless States are to be reached and subjected to Kansas laws. The Times suggests to the Kansas solons that they make the rewise of gum and the use of fourteeningh hatpins felonies without benefit of clergy.

None of them is strong enough alone to hold the door closed against war. They look to the power of the United States to prevent this avainable of disaster. In these circumstances it is clear that every ounce of their strength will be exerted to prevent the breach between this country and Germany becoming wider.

In reckoning all these influences we cannot omit the self-interest of the two countries. It would be costly and humiliating for the United States to go into war. It would seriously divert our whole theory of for the United States to go into war. It would seriously divert our whole theory of national life; our whole world plan. If we once go into a war alliance with European powers our children's children's great-grand-children will curse the day.

SWEETHEART NIGHTS.

After the alight touches of winter—of California winter with moisture-laden winds and crisp morning air—who can resist the appeal of these soft, romantic, moonlight nights composed of music and shadows and tender hand presses and lingering farewells under the pepper tree, on the lawn or along the pathway leading fo the rose-covered porch?

These nights are ready-made for sweet-hearts, evidently designed to pravent race suicide—they play their part in rolling up the numbers of marriages and children in Southern California. And incidentally they save Los Angeles many shekels for electric fuice to light the suburban streets. The man in the moon, for all the sentiment he encourages, is a practical old fellow. He seems to say to young couples, "Enjoy your present opportunities, but don't forget to provide against future bills."

Away back in the dim distant past there was an old-fashioned girl who wore over-shoes. And the price of gum-shoeing has increased. The Freedom of the Seize.

A N OPPRESSIVE REVENUE IAW.

The revenue law now under consideration in Congress, and which will probably be enacted, provides for collecting by direct taxation from the people of the United States the enormous sum of $1,417,444,000 per annum. At the same time it is indicated that the damnable Underwood law, the tariff for revenue only which lessened the revenue—will be left untouched by this Democratic Congress.

It is not claimed that a customs duty is not also a tax which the people must pay, but it is claimed that they do not feel it, but it is claimed that they do not feel it, and "what their eyes do not see their hearts do not grieve about." The foreign manufacturer howis against the tariff which inflicts upon him a license tax for the privilege of bringing the product of his looms and furnaces into the United States. The home manufacturer approves the Republican tariff and regrets its abrogation, for it enabled him to get a better price for publican tariff and regrets its abrogation, for it enabled him to get a better price for his wares and so enabled him to compete with the foreign manufacturer. The workers employed by the home manufacturer obtained higher wages than the foreign worker because their employers obtained higher prices for their goods. The Republican tariff gave increased sales to the home merchant. It gave a better home market to the farmer. It gave every child an opportunity to attend better schools. It aided to develop new industries and increase old ones. It helped to make the crease old ones. It helped to make the United States the richest and most prosperous country in the world.

The opponents of the protective tariff were the cotton planters, who dominate the politics of the Southern States, and who are not interested in protecting our manufacturing industry; the idle rich of the Northern States; the people who live on ents and interest; the dwellers in the slums of the great cities, and a vast num-ber of Democratic voters who do not really mean to injure their country, who mean well but who resemble those of whom Paul said they "possessed a seal of God but not according to knowledge."

The Times does not deny that the consumer in the end pays the customs tax just as he pays the internal revenue taxes. All taxes take money out of the pocket of the consumers, but the tariff tax is the only tax that indirectly puts money into the pockets of the producers by giving them better prices for their products, and higher wages for their work.

Congressman Miller of Pennsylvania in a recent speech in the House said: "It is not the rich alone who pay the internal revenue taxes. It is every man in the United States, be he rich or poor. I expect there will be assessed against me for the com-ing year over $100 of income tax, including ing year over $100 of income tax, inc the surtax. Am I going to pay it? Not by a long shot. The people who have me do-ing their legal business will pay it. The government of the United States, that put some money in my pocket this year as a Congressman, will pay some of it. And who put the money into the United States Treasury? The people. Many of us have not made a dollar last year outside our salary. I have been near to fooling my time away during the past year. How am I going to pay it? I am going to get it from the people who give me something. from the people who give me something. As a rule, when I talk standing on my feet, somebody pays me for it."

Under the present internal revenue tax law $325,000,000 per annum is collected. Under the proposed law $929,750,000 will be collected—an increase of $604,750,000. To this will be added $222,000,000 from the sale of Panama Canal bonds and $100,000,000 from 3 per cent treasury certificates authorized to be issued. The Democratic Congress which is piedged to decreased taxation and economy in public expenditure will cost the people of this country $926, 750,000 more than its Republican predecessor—$9.26 per annum more for every men, woman and child in the country. And $600,000,000, the Underwood anti-protective tariff will remain unbouched.

Unless the Sixty-fifth Congress shall make a better showing the prediction of Congressman Miller will surely be fulfilled. He said, as he shook a warning finger at the Democrats in the House of Representa

I tell you, gentlemen, that when you pass this bill you will not only have three less than a majority in the Sixty-fifth Congress, but you will have fifty less than a majority in the Sixty-sixth Congress. It will not be a question of the independents organizing the House, as it is now. The Republicans will have such a majority that they will organize it easily, and they will just do what they please with you, gentlemen, just what you have done with them.

OUR PORTO RICO.

If a trade of over $100,000,000 has been built up in a period of sixteen years be-tween the cities of the east coast of this country and Porto Rico, an island containsing only 3500 square miles, what should be the commerce between Southern California ports and the west coast region of Mexico, sixteen years after stable condi-tions have been established in that war torn country?

The natural resources of the Pacific States of Mexico are many times greater than those of Porto Rico. Their area is 325,000 square miles against the 3500 of that island, and their population is nearly five times as great. The vegetable products of the two regions are similar in char acter; but Porto Rico possesses scarcely any minerals and its animal products are negligible. Mexico has immense mineral resources and the area suitable for grazing purposes is extensive.

reason of geographical situation, have a decided advantage for commerce with the west coast of Mexico, we shall not secure the trade of this rich area without con tion with the cities of the east coast of the United States, Japan, and possibly England and Germany. We must build up our in-dustrial district so that we can send to Mexico the supplies that the East furnishes to Porto Rico—cotton goods, boots and shoes, machinery, iron and steel manufactures, flour and many other products.

Our harbor should be the home port of lines of steamers running, not only to the west coast of Mexico, but to Central America, South America, Australia and New Zealand, and carrying our manufac tured products for exchange with these countries for raw materials and the staples which we cannot produce for ourselves.

WINTER CARNIVAL.

St. Paul has just spent a week in celebrating an Outdoor Sports Carnival, ruled over by King Boreas II. The opening parade was six miles long and included 30,000 participants—and the Pioneer Press proudly announces it as the greatest pageant ever seen in the United States. Tobogganing, ski contests, skating, snow-balling—even snow baths in bathing suits are among the attractions offered. And and only isst year's almanacs were sproudly announces it as the greatest pageant ever seen in the United States. Tobogganing, ski contests, skating, snowballing—even snow baths in bathing suits are among the attractions offered. And the weather man was propitious. He furnished the carnival city with a downfall of the beautiful that took thousands of men to clear away sufficiently for the parade to get through. Snow was piled high on either side of the marchers. Below zero weather also helped make the conditions perfect. It's a good thing to make the most of one's assets—even when they might be distinctly classed as drawbacks, it's very well to proclaim to the world that feciles are more attractive than roses, that racing on snow-shoes is better exercise than golf, and that snow baths are more exhilarating than ocean dives. But the chattering teeth of the boasters don't confirm the claim.

There is civil war in Abyasinia, but the other nations are making so much goise in the war line that the fuss cannot be heard.

STREAKS OF WIT.

Circulation and Profits [New York Sun:] The Krupp Company has declared a dividend of 12 per cent. It is understood that its products have been in wide circulation among European peoples for more than two years.

The Literacy Test.

[Springfield Republican:] The literacy test would have kept out of this country a good many of the forefathers of whom Congressmentwho will vote to override the President's veto are not ashamed. And many a man who can read and write, as well as many a one who can smile and smile, may be a villain. A Ruinous Investment.

A Ruinous Investment.

[Baltimore American:] The war debt of Europe is $49,000,000,000, Yet any man would be considered insane in recommending nations to go to such a huge expanse for peaceful and constructive purposes. This sum was invested in ruin and destruction everywhere, and will be practically a total loss as far as realization in any profit is concerned.

A Note on Taxes.

[New York Sun:] There are still several things which were taxed in the Civil War which have not yet been harnessed by Mr. Wilson and his party. Among them we may mention all manufacturers, physicians, peddlers, lawyers, hotels and more and coal oil. We offer this suprians, peddiers, inwyers, hotels and rock and coal oil. We offer this sup-plementary list without opinion one way or the other, being merely anxious to help the administration out of its difficulties with as little discomfort to the country as pos-

The Example of France.

[Toledo Blade:] France has been the world's highest example for thrift. Its citisens more than all others on the globe have conquered the temptation to spend and developed the gift of wise saving. But France has yet maintained the gayest of all the cities—a city which tried to show that thrift was dull and stupid, that thought of the morrow was a mistake. New York is the successor of Paris. Its chief row was a mistake. New York is the successor of Paris. Its chief business is becoming that of driving away care. But, curiously, the coun-try is developing a sense of thrift. There are more people of small in-comes who own their homes, more with acid, tweetheasts with safe investments, more with hoards put away against the rain.

Henry Watterson's Voice.

[Boston Transcript:] If old Andrew Jackson were alive today and could observe the attitude which the men who think they are his followers are taking on questions of the hour, such as preparedness, Mexico, the killing of Americans by submarines and a score of other subjects, what he would eave to them.

marines and a score of other subjects, what he would say to them,
"by the Eternal," would make their ears tingle and their cheeks flush worse even than his language at
New Orleans humbled those militiamen who ran away.

There is one Democrat of today who evidently has studied Jackson's life and character. Here is what Henry Watterson imagines Old Hickory would say to the Democrats of 1916: "For shame, ye mongrels, for shame! Cravens, dead to the nation's glory; fakers, lost to conviction, patriotic duty and selfsacrifice; rogues and rascals, every mother's son of you, to the devil whence you sprang and where you belong!"

[Dayton News:] Every once in a while you will hear some lecturer extol the methods of foreign governments in making their governments an aid to the people, the inference being that we Americans are woefully behind the times. This reference is, of course, purely economic. ence is, of course, purely economic. You pay the lecturer $1 or so to hand out a lot of dope on agriculture and out a lot of dope on agriculture and domestic science, and wonder where in tarnation all the expense of the United States goes to. As a matter of fact, there are few nations so well equipped as is the United States to aid her people in an economic way. Uncle Sam has in his Department of Agriculture instructions based on experience for the big farmer and for the little farmer. He has aids for the country housewife and for the city house manager. There is in builetin form a help for every one who has to do manager. There is in bulletin form a help for every one who has to do with the raising, preparation and serving of food. Widespread use of the things Uncle Sam has to offer would ald greatly in the solution of the things Uncle Sam has to offer would aid greatly in the solution of the problem created by Mr. Hi C. O'Livin. Some time we may get the people to know that simply to have a governmental agency is not the only thing necessary. We must make use of that agency for a profit.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

FARM LIFE.

When I was young the farmers nacks were shy of costly tomes; CHILE CON CARNAGE.

BEING THE PARTICULAR PEPPER IN SOME PERSONAL OPINIONS

Of Don Yo de Chiltepin.

Some years ago, a President of the United States (and you have only one guess at his name,) stood on a hill that looks down on lovely Lake Mohonk. You know of the place, even if you have not been enfertained there for a Philanthropist by those blessed snow-haired Quaker twins, the Smileys—whose autograph is also recognized in Southern California. Mohonk is "the American Hague." It is the only place where the "Friends of the Indians," or "Peace Conferences" or anything else of that sort would feel at home—with the best in the hotel for a week, and no bill. And a Peace Conference was just then piecing along in the hotel.

The President had been talking with his companion, a young captain, about the "View"—and other things. In a moment of silence the young man noted a big boulder beside them; and with the confidence of his years and mighty thews, laid hand to it, and tugged like Jason at his father's stone testament; and uprooted its 300 pounds.

He really could handle it!

"It wonder, Mr. President! I'd like to roll this rock down the hill, and see it jump. But don't you think it might kill some pacificists!"

"It might be worth trying" answered the President.

Now is your time to guess!

This is no fable. It actually happened. The President himself told me, quite apropos of matters we were discussing.

He didn't mean it might be well to kill a Peace-Maker. He agreed with the First Gentleman—"Blessed are the Peacemakers, fcr they shall be called the children of God." And he himself made the most extraordinary peace between warring nations abroad that any American President ever made.

But he was "agin" the Pussityers—the Apostles of Unpreparedness, the "Million-soldiers-while-you wait" enthusiasts.

Personally, I count Bro. Bryan a most honest man and a most ableone. If he hadn't been both he couldn't have "wished on" the Democratic party (and the rest of us) the first College Professor we ever had for President. And he evidently fears neither God, man nor the Devil—since he is trying to turn Democrats Dry. And I hope I'm man enough to admire the Points of an enemy.

But when he opposes Preparedness, he qualifies as a Murderer!

We have all known "Blessings in Diaguise" and "Angels Unawares." For long and lean years the redblooded of us have been bumping our heads against a concrete wall. We have tried to get Our Country to "Pick her Flints," at least, and "Keep her Powder Dry." We have begged her to be Ready—mot for Aggression or Conquest, but for Self-Protection. And the result? Ask Congress, ask Vera Cruz, ask Pershing, ask the National Guard. Chew on that last definition a moment. Guard! Against what?

They are good boys—but helpless in the face of the way we Do Things. What proportion of them will enlist again, now they know the handicap

For nineteen years—ever since 1888, when we were Also Unprepared, and Washington cost us more mortality than Madrid did—we've been going through the motions of a person Getting Ready. We're not Ready yet! Probably we could Capture Cuba easier than before—for we know the ropes and we have Leonard Wood. But as to even a month's stand-up against a third-class power—Boo! We haven't the powder, we haven't the guns, ships, trained men.

Are you proud of this? Hang me if I am! But it's Gospel. That's the

We may damn the Kaiser and all his works. But if he can get "Frightful" enough to do for us what our Presidents, newspapers, patriots have been unable to do in a decade's exhortation—if he can Waken America from its fat and lasy content; and jolt it into self-respecting Preparedness, so it may be fit and ready to stand up in the Council of the World—why. I'd think he had done us a favor!

From War to Automobiles is not so far a cry as it sounds in the alphabet. Do you realize that as many Americans are killed by Americans in California as have been killed by Germany in this war?

I was in the first fight in Los Angeles for High License for Salcons. I'd now like to get into a crusade for H. L. for chauffeurs and chautusses. I would like our Noble Legislitter to pass a law I'd draw free gratis. It would save money and life, even it were done by a Commission of Three at $5000 each. But even our Stuporvisors could do it, and more cheaply.

Every chauffeur (and female equivalent) would have to trundle a loaded wheelbarrow three months on a one-foot plank two feet away from the wheelbarrow going the other, way. The chain-gang is a good place for this practice; though a wheelbarrow job on a concrete building might do as well, technically.

If the candidate—who aspires to might do as well, technically.

If the candidate—who aspires to ramp our streets and run over us—survived this apprenticeship, I'd have him (or her or it) tried out on a country road—to see if they could estate the poles and trees. Then I would put them under $10,000 indemni'y bonds, to drive "at large"—and $20,000, to run wild in the Business Section. Myself, I like to walk a block or so, without being jammed through a plate-glass window by a jitney.

THANK COUNCIL.

At Jacoby's --- a comprehensive exhibit of

New garments--new hats!

Firstly we want to direct your attention to the windows and then to the dept. showings on the 2nd & 3rd floors.

There's so much that can be written about the millinery for this spring of 1917 that it would be only half told if we filled a newspaper with it!

—And if we could tell you about the hats that are here scores and scores of beauties at $25.00—at $29.50—at $32.50—at $39.50—and on up to $100 and more!

Note the two sports models pictured below.

—The suits lean very strongly to the sports effects, still there are a goodly number of the fancy models and plain tailored effects!
—In this Monday exhibit we are specializing on suits at $25.00 and $35.00!

—One of the new yestee suits is pictured at left of the interest of the sports and the days to follow! And so when you ask—"What of the hats?"—we're going to ask you to come, see them, and try them on—and if by any chance the hat you want is not here Monday, it surely will be Tuesday!

—Glance at the five hats that are shown in the above

—Every express for the past week has been bringing its quota of new things from the land of Fashion!

—And this exhibit we invite you to come and see on Monday is by far the most extensive of any the ever made this early in any season!

About the Garments

—Coats—and they're so wonderfully attractive that they'll be worn even in the heat of summer! The colors are wonderfully gay—yes even brilliant! The styles are different as can be—note the novelty coat dress at the right of the illustration below!

—Monday's feature group of coats is priced $25.

—Third Floor—Jacoby's.

What of the Hats?

The one at the left is an afternoon affair of black Neopolitan braid faced with Georgette and trimmed with French rose buds—

The next is a Chinese coolie model at $13.75. The center one a hand-blocked model of grey Milan, $35.00. The fourth of white silk at $20.00. The one at the right is a leghorn exquisitely trimmed—priced $30.00. 2nd floor—Jacoby's.

VAN NUYS WOMAN'S CLUB TO LAY ITS CORNER-STONE

A CCORDING to present plans, dramatic sections of the club, and the cornerstone of the Van will do much toward making the clubhouse a social center. Entrance will be through a reception-room, laid on February 22, five years after which is made homelike by a large Nuys Woman's Club will be laid on February 22, five years after its inception and on the sixth anniversary of the founding of this town. The progressive activities of this organization, probably the largest of its kind in proportion to the population of the surrounding community, have been responsible for its remarkable success.

The new building is ideal for the purpose intended, and was made possible through the generosity of a club member who donated the lot upon which the structure is being erected. The clubhouse stands on West Virginia street, facing the snow-clad Sierras. A broad lawn, flowers, trees and shrubs are being planted to provide the proper setting for the handsome structure, which will set well back from the street, and a wide drivway leading to a porte-cochere on either side.

The house will contain a large auditorium, dining-room, committeerooms, restrooms for both ladies and gentlemen and a model kitchen. A fully-equipped stage with dressing-rooms on each side is a feature much appreciated by the music and BUSY MEN'S EXERCISE.

Extra Classes and Athletic Fea-tures Arranged by Y.M.C.A. Gymnasium classes, athletic games and all-round exercise as are advocated in a statement just prepared for the board of directors of the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A., by W. A. Reynolds, physical director. Mr. Reynolds says an increased number of gymnusium classes and athletic features has been necessary to meet the demand for physical exercise among business men of this city.

to meet the demand for physical carecise among business men of this city.

"The tremendous strain of preent-day business competition has emphasized the need of systematic exercise and recreation for the tusiness man," said the Y.M.C.A. director. "We have a slightly siff-ferent type of symnasium work for business men who are taking regular daily exercise at the Y.M.C.A. We have socialized exercise in such a way that there is often as much pleasure and profit in the social relationships of the men in their gym suits, as there is benefit in the exercise itself."

early yesterday morning when they attempted to blow and batter open the safe of the Hollywood Motor Supply Company at No. 6130 Holly-wood boulevard. They blew off the outer door of the strong box with heavy charges of nitroglycerine and nacked away at the inner door with an ax and sledgehammer, but before they could reach the cash drawer, they were evidently frightened away.

When the police arrived burglar tools were found scattered about the floor in front of the damased safe. The intruders had entered the rear door by using a jimmy.

with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waster materials and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach. Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coasted tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, billous spells acid stomachs or constigution should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshen the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside clean liness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

The Celebration of 21 Years of Business Development

-During which time The Broadway Department Store has, through the inspirations and high ideals of one man, advanced to a position high in public confidence.

-There is ever uppermost in the everyday business transactions of this store, a desire to serve you well, courteously, and with your best interests in mind always.

-The splendid new building that now houses the store on its 21st birthday is dedicated to your needs. It was planned with your convenience and that of our employees in mind.

Is it any wonder that we are enthusiastically celebrating the occasion by the distribution of new and fashionable merchandise at prices in keeping with the spirit of the Anniversary.

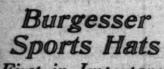

—Your faith and co-operation made possible this progress and consequently your interests are appreciated, as reflected in the character of the worth-while merchandise we present at this time.

—It is a time to renew the principles of the business—to further emphasize the policies and to point out the cornerstones of Courtesy, Truth, Liberality and Value.

—The Second week of the Anniversary is to be notable. This is evidenced by the many, many ties we have assembled.

superman who can go out into the superman who can go out into the superman who can go out into the crowded city and out of a million people pick up the wanted criminal. As a matter of fact most arrests are simple affairs and require no special skill. The greatest aid in detective work is a fund of what your parents call "common sense."

Observation, knowledge of character, the ability to use judgment, skill in reading faces, all come as second nature to the police officer.

A common form of arrest is on dascription. The police of a distant city telegraph a meager description of a wanted man or woman. The police here are not required to search the entire city to find this man. The search is limited to well-defined districts. If the Los Angels police are told what train the man or woman is likely to arrive on, the search narrows down to one cer-there are included his manner of carriage, his walk, the way he carries his head, the combination of his profile—that is, a general description of the ears, nose and chin. This is the best description that can be given, because it is almost as distinctive and individual as a fingerprint. It is seldom two men with the same combination of nose, chin and ear can be found, even when one is looking for the combination. A man's habits are also described—his former associates and his taste in food, clothing and friends. The telegraph, express and postoffice are other aids that enter widely in the search.

How You Can Quickly
Remove Hairy Growths

(Alds to Beauty)
A well known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face. Mix into a pasts some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. This method is quick and entirely safe. To avoid disappointment, however, it is well to make certain you get genuine delatone.

STRANGER IS MARKED.

A stranger on the beat is noted instantly by his walk, his apparent destination, his lack of familiarity with his surroundings, his dress, method of looking at those he passes, it is a matter of pride in an officer to know his beat—know the people he protects, the children and the strong has well. The few-hours-old description in his mind, the officer is on the watch for a man to answer it, and almost unconsciously he eliminates those he passes. If he should eventually pass the wanted man or woman, or some one resembling that person, he is at liberty to stop the person, engage him in conversation, and, by a few questions and close observation, determine whether it is the person wanted.

Environment is the great determining factor in searching for a man. Recently a negro terrorized the southwest part of the city by his destination, his lack of familiarity with his surroundings, his dress, method destination, his lack of familiarity with his surroundings, his dress, method instantly by his walk, his apparent destination, his lack of familiarity with his surroundings, his dress, method instantly by his walk, his apparent destination, his lack of familiarity with his surroundings, his dress, method its at his his business. as there are classes of people in the life of a city.

A few weeks ago a youth of Minneapolis, son of wealthy parents, well groomed, well bred and educated, bearing the earmarks of good social caste, was arrested in a downtown cast by Sergeant of Detectives Charles Jones. Mr. Jones took the youth out of the restaurant and placing his hand on the young man's shoulder, he said: "Tell me all about it, son."

The boy had been spending money with a reckless abandon that astounded even the people who are used to seeing gilded youths parted from their substance. The Minnesota boy, without a quiver, told how he had stolen $3000 from a flour merchant and had fied. It later developed his parents had made good the amount. The young man, on the advice of the detectives, returned the money he had left and is now engaged in work in this city.

Almost all the more desperate criminals are young. Less than 10 per cent. of criminals who visit prisons for their first, term have reached 30 years of age; most are under 25 years.

Of the thirty detectives in this city, probably twenty-sight can pick a "crook" on sight. There is a vocational mark on the criminal that is as noticeable as that of any trade in the world.

BETRAYAL COMMON.

But all criminals are not of this habitual stamp. Something like 100 arrests a year are made of young men who abscond from their native cities with funds. A like number of wife-deserters and perhaps another 100 of various kinds of criminals come here and are arrested. These often betray themselves. Many are arrested at the drain for no other reason than the detectives "hunch." Others come under the shrewd scrutiny of hotelelers, rooming-house keepers, pawnbrokers, head waiters, general delivery cierks at the postoffice, messenger boys, chorus girls—there are as many ways of being betrayed as there are classes of people in the life of a city.

Special trains of boosters will come from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Long Beach, Venice, Corona, Upland and other places. INDUSTRY.

The orange show organization is made up of prominent San Bernardino business men, who each year give up their time and energies to the promotion of the citrus industry without compensation. Joseph Ingersoll is president, having succeeded Ben W. Campton, resigned. M. C. McKenney is vice-president, Joseph Strawser, treasurer, and Miss Georgia V. Farmer secretary. The active arrangements are in charge of Fred M. Renfro, who has held the position of general manager for several years.

A special advisory board consists of past presidents of the show and this year includes W. W. Brison, A. G. Kendall, S. W. McNabb, Ralph E. Swing and J. H. Wilson.

The Executive Committee, including the chairmen of all working committees, consists of Joseph Strawser, finance; George N. Haven, publicity: John Anderson, fruit exhibit; C. E. # The Secret of Dining Room Effectiveness

CINCE the dining-room is essentially a or room of hospitality, cordiality and good cheer—its furnishing should be planned to create that atmosphere.

Mere furniture, however costly it may be, will not in itself create an effective dining room. Effectiveness must be the result of the tout ensemble.

Everything that enters into the furnishing of the dining room must bear its proper relation to everything elections of good taste and judgment, rather than by the extravagant expenditure of money.

The California Furniture Co. not only shows the finest productions in dining room furniture of all important periods but it places at your service the co-operation of skilled may who stand ready to assist you in attaining the results you desire.

And you will perhaps be surprised to find upon parison that you can buy even more economically at the "fornia" than at the ordinary furniture store. This condition apply whether you seek the inexpensive or the most costly.

A very magnificent dining-room suite of Louis XIV Period is shown in one of our windows this week.

Spring was the keynote of a very daintily-appointed luncheon given last Monday by Mrs. Walter Raymond at the Hotel Raymond in Pasadena. Crisp pink sweet peas formed the center decorations of the big, round table, and around this was a conventional design of violets and ferns, the effect being very unusual. Mrs. Raymond's guests were Mrs. H. I. Stuart, Mrs. F. R. Harris, Mrs. William Stanton, Miss Harbaugh, Mrs. J. Dawson Thomson, Mrs. Benjamin Folsom, Mrs. Muster Raymorous, and he was loudly applauded at its conclusion. A number of students, including the debating and Mrs. Silas Howe of Chicago, Mrs. George Bell and Warren of the Raymon of the Av.U.H.S. in particular.

REUBEN JAMES.

An Incident of the Fight Off Tripoli, August 3, 1804. Three ships of war had Preble when he left the Naples shore, And the knightly King of Naples lent him seven galleys more, And never since the Argo floated in the Middle Sea

Lawrence, Porter, Trippe, Macdonough, and a score as true and bold; Every star that lights their banner tells the glory that they won; But one common sailor's glory is the splendor of the sun.

Of the lofty Turkish galley and in battle broke his sword.

Then the pirate captain smote him, till his blood was running fast,

"Help!" the Turkish leader shouted, and his trusty comrade sprung And his scimetar like lightning o'er the Yankee captain swung. Reuben James, disabled, armless, saw the sabre flashed on high, Saw Decatur shrink before it, heard the pirate's taunting cry; Saw, in half the time I tell it, how a sailor, brave and true, Still might show a bloody pirate what a dying man can do. Quick he struggled, stumbling, sliding in the blood around his feet, As the Turk a moment waited to make vengeance doubly sweet. Swift the sabre fell, but swifter bent the sailor's head below,

So the love that moves the lowly lifts the great to fame and pride Yet we grudge him not his honors, for whom love like this had

The Prettiest Valentines We Know are the Charming New Styles Ready Tomorrow

—All fluffy and fresh and dainty as valentines should be. And like valentines they must be seen to be appreciated. However perfectly the styles may be described by word or picture here, there is nothing else on earth that can convey the charm of such pretty

—There are almost a thousand beautiful fashions here now, and not one of them could ever parade itself in a newspaper to show ALL of its beauty, ALL of its style, and ALL of its goodness. But here, at the store, they need no words to tell the story of their unsurpassing smartness. Best see them now while they are so very new. The proverb of the "early bird and the worm" was never better applied.

The SUIT Valentines are Priced $25.00, $29.75 and $32.50

-Their most important features are the materials-first comes tricotine, that lovely texture that is woven to look like a knitted fabric; then sturdy wool jersey, and serge, Poiret twill, checked and plain, as well as velours and imported suitings.

—And the new colors, bright Kelly green, apple green, peacock blue, beet, honey-gold, —And the new little touches of trimmings such as stitched collars; long rows of buttons, set close together; novel pockets, paneled skirts and broad and odd shaped collars.

The COAT Valentines are Light Enough to Enjoy All the Year 'Round, $19.50 and $25.00

—You'll find them the finest kind of economy—just heavy enough to be comfortable in the cool of California's summer evenings, just firmly woven enough to be warm for The styles are staple and sensible, but not plain. The collars can be worn either high —Many new styles are ready in velour, wool jersey and a few in burella. Several of them have silk collars which double over collars of the coat material. These can be removed in colder weather.

The DRESS Valentines are Very, Very Gay And $22.50, $25.00 and $27.50

—Taffeta and Georgette are used profusely because Fashion could not give them up. They are different than ever in their colorings and in their full skirts and dainty yokes and collars. —Crepe meteor is used, too, and there are the multi-colored frocks of Khaki Kool and Yo San. Prettiest of All are the MILLINERY Valentines Trimmed Hats $7.50 What are they like? Why, there are drooping brims and rolled brims, in faille silk and straw; some simply banded, and, oh, so good-looking.

-There are liseries, too, that shiny straw that everyone likes so well—only they are in bright colors this year instead of just black.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple aliments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the sold of grapes folks who are subject to urinary dis orders caused by uric acid irritation Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, efferves can lithic water diply which mights or entertained with a linen anniversary dinner Sunday evening. The table and dining-room were decorated with red carnations and smilax, making an artistic picture. The dinner was served in three courses, turkey being the principal part of the first course. The guests brought many beautiful pieces of linen to express their esteem for their host and hostess, and the evening was spent in playing games and listening to music furnished by Mrs. Robert Herron of Los Angeles. The guest list included Mrs. S. J. Lane, Mr. O. C. Lane and son John, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lane and son John, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lane and son John, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lane of Burbank.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson of Fifth and Angeleno streets entertained a number of friends Monday evening in honor of Mr. J. Dunsford and Mr. H. Whitely of Marlette, Mich., who have been touring Southern California for the past few months. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kendall, Mr. J. Dunsford, Mr. H. Whitely, Mr. L. Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless.) and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

Simple Way to End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, them you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need,) apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and jook and feel a hundred times better.

STARR-MADE PLAYERPIANO The ORIGINAL Playerpiano

The Starr-Made Playerpiano gives the "human touch" and expression to music as does no other instrument. Its simple controlling devices enable the player to give the widest range of musical expression, and to put his own soul and feeling into the playing. The tempo lever gives instant control of the jempo while playing, eliminating the mechanical exactness characteristic of other player instruments.

Our factory-to-you plan of selling enables you to buy this unequalled instrument for less than the price of inferior instruments sold in retail stores.

Prices of Starr-Made Playerpianos Range from $475 up—Terms $10 Down—$10 Monthly. WE cordially invite you to visit our large factory sales-rooms and to inspect our entire inc of playerplanes, planes and phonegraphs.

BRITISH STOCKS IN BIG DECLINE.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]
LONDON, Jan. 31.—The decline in stock exchange values of leading British stocks and bonds during the past year is shown by the annual compliations to have been nearly as severe as that of the previous year. A list of 387 representative accurities shows a shrinkage in market value of 149,000,000 pounds in 1918. This follows a decline in 1915 of 207,000,000, while if a comparison is made with market conditions the week before the war, a decline of 523,000,000 is shown.

Analysis of the depreciation last year in individual departments of market activity, shows that British and foreign government securities declined 9 and 7 per cent, respectively. A few sections show substantial gains. Shipping issues rose 24 per cent., copper mining shares 25 per cent., copper mining shares

If there were a practical way, or if a practical way could be devised, for checking up all improvements, including not only buildings, but overything else affecting the value of property, it might be possible to maintain a fairly equable assessment roll without combing the city every year. It would not do, however, to simply ignore all influences affecting assessable property generally over two-year periods as the correspondent suggests. rosed in the subject was a by a well-known East

PARKWAY NOW ASSURED FACT.

Silver Lake Project Ready 1 go Ahead.

Waste Lands of Northwest to be Transformed.

Fine Improvements Springing up Along Ravine.

Silver Lake parkway, the bea ful woodland drive to be created out of the waste lands of Bimin slough, it at last, after ma lays, about to become a reality. Fiv. years have elapsed since the pas-sage of the ordinance of intention pected to mean so much to a large part of Northwest Los Angeles has been removed.

The jury in the Superior Courawarded $160,000 to the Pacific Electric Railway, a week ago for five parcels of land lying in the parkway site in the vicinity of Wes Sixth street and Vermont avenue and thereby brought to an end the litigation over condemnation proceedings that has kelped to hold the enterprise back. A still more trouble-some difficulty was eliminated at the special municipal election of last October when the people voted to amend the city charter to allow the Pacific Electric to construct its proposed subway to Vineyard under the parkway.

City Engineer Hamlin was instructed by the Board of Public Works last Tuesday, to finish the parkway assessment maps for the Assessment Bureau, in the abortest possible time. The board is not waiting for the formal entering of the interlocutory decree in the final condemnation award, washing to avoid all delays. Barring cfreumstances now unforseen, the city of Los Angeles will come into actual possession of the lands sought for the parkway, by July 1, at the latest.

LEASES HOTED.

E. W. Cason & Co., associated hotel brokers, report the leasing of the Morris Hotel, No. $11 East Fifth street, for a term of years to B. Weingart. The Morris Hotel is owned by the Tropical Investment Company, of Salt Lake City, which is controlled by W. O. Kay and R. E. Miller. The house contains 125 rooms, is fireproof and located within 500 feet of the Southern Pacific depot. It was erected eighteen months ago. Mr. Weingart has taken possession. He also owns and controls several other hotels in East Los Angeles.

work to reform the tissues. This use of amber is simply a reversion to previous times, for the ancients believed it to be a sovereign remedy for insanity, fevers and agues, and as equally potent whether imbibed or worn about the neck as an amulet. And in this they were undoubtedly right. The Greeks regarded twith superstitious reverence, believing its origin and properties to be equally mysterious. Consequently there arose the inevitable myth that amber was the tears of Phaston's sisters who were pitingly changed into poplar trees after Jove had hurled their brother into the Eridanus. The Romans were more practical, called it succinum, or gumstong, a lucky guess at its origin, for the gibble of the new model cars will arrive here shortly from the East where they are now being made.

Amendments to the law providing for a period of the oil fields from damage by infiltrating water have been introduced at the present session of the Legislature by Assemblyman T. R. Finley of Santa Maria, and Senator J. R. Thompson of Santa Barbara, according to advices from the State Mining Bureau.

These advices declare the principal change sought by the amendments is that of the legal theory under which the funds are raised. "At present the law assumes the funds are raised as assessments for benefit, such as is the case in irrigation and reclamation districts," says the mining bureau bulletin.

"As the nature of the work in the oil fields is of a regulatory character, and as it would be difficult to define districts and assess upon a basis of benefits derived, the constitutionality it is therefore proposed to collect the funds under the hands of the preventionality it is therefore proposed to collect the funds under the hands of the covernment's somewhat in doubt. San Francisco, Alameda, Santa Clara, Fresno, Sacramento, San Diego, San Bernardino, San Joaquin Diego, San Bernardino, San Joaquin and Sonoma, containing a population of 1,611,672 persons, $2,971,900 was the total amount of expenditures for the maintenance of county institutions. Of this sum nine counties spent $2,201,900, on an average of $2.04 per capita. Los Angeles, with a population of 504,-131, spent exactly $770,000, or $1.50 per capita. San Francisco spent $2.29, Fresno $2.04, Sacramento $1.94, while San Diego, with $2.80, and San Joaquin, $2.81, topped the list for per capita expenditures.

IS THIS RESULT?

Perhaps it is this great incongruity that has made the Legislature tardy in granting to this board some of the added powers it has sought. Perhaps some of the reforms needed to bring the charities department up to a proper standard of efficiency will be granted when State finances are better distributed. Influence of the Board of Control over the Charities Board may, too, have some effect on the Legislature. In its general recommendations the board has classified its suggestions under the following divisions: First, for the care of dependent children; second, for the care of the feeble-minded; third, for the care of the feeble-minded; third, for the care of alcoholics and drug habitues; fifth, for the care of adult offenders; sixth, for the outdoor care of dependents and seventh for the instance and seventh for the instance of alcoholics and drug habitues. After it arrives he waits about patiently until the passengers are off, but when he is sure he will be in nobody's way, he either trots up the gans plank or jumps over the rail and trots straight to the cook's galley. Perhaps it is his keen seent that tells him just where to go, but he always finds it.

Men at sea do not meet dogs very often, so when Curly opens his mouth in a huge smile, with his red tongue loiling out, he always gets a hearty welcome. A few minutes later Curly is very probable unable to make the leap back to the wharf, but he never stays long after he has had his meal. There are other ships and he must be on hand whether he is hupgy or not.

VALLEY ACTIVITIES,

W. H. Hay, developer of the Encino Acres property in the San Fernando Valley, reports numerous improvements being made by recent purchasers in that subdivision. F. L. Hogue who recently bought sixty-five acres to the tract, is now planting thirty-five acres to Eureka lemons and Valencia oranges and has just completed a five-room bungalow. Annie E. Johnson, is erecting a seven-room bungalow and is planting ten acres to deciduous trees. J. W. Gray has started improving a five-acre parcel. E. P. Haskell, of Montebello, is planting out twenty-five acres to walnuts. Another recent purchaser is reported by Mr. Hay to be preparing the ground for planting fifty acres to walnuts. Mr. Hay, himself, is now planting ten acres to late Valencias, fifteen acres to lemons and five acres for a family orchard, A. M. V. Schermerhorn is improving a knoll, which he purchased recently as a site for a fine home.

The house was planned and is being built by the Milwaukee Building Company of Los Angeles. It will be in the Italian Renaissance style, and will contain ten rooms. The finish will be in hard woods.

Interesting in connection with the improvement is the appreciation of real estate values in this part of Whittier. Mr. Arnold, who bought his site recently, is understood to have paid $4000 for the 100x150 feet included in the property. The previous owner had bought it along with a large amount of adjoining ground at the rate of $150 an acre.

MOVING TROOPS-BY MOTOR WOULD BE BIG ADVANTAGE.

Southern California's wonderfully good roads system and multitude of automobiles may be the salvation of this section of the country in case of sudden invasion either from the ocean or by way of Mexico. The roads which have brought us our tourists may be of great use in defending us against visitors of a more undesirable variety.

The oil fields back of Bakers-

The oil fields back of Bakers field have shoved Southern Call-fornia into the military lime-light. Should some such naval power as Japan attack this country the oil fields would be an immediate objective.

ONE HOPE,

ONE HOPE,
The one hope of successful defense for Southern California lies in the superior facilities for moving troops which come from the many machines and the wonderful roads. A comparatively small body of troops could be moved by automobile with such rapidity as to successfully meet landing parties from a fleet.

There are in Los Angeles county 80,000 automobiles and trucks in daily use. With an average capacity of four men in addition to the driver they could transport an army of over 800,000 men easily and quickly from a mobilization center such as Calexico to any threatened point on the coast or the Mexican border.

SMALL ENOUGH.

We have now for the defense of Southern California a half-completed fort at San Pedro, a handful of regulars at San Diego, a few militia companies and the remnants of the National Guard. Our only salvation in case of sudden attack would be the ability to hurl the entire strength of these regulars and partly trained troops, supplemented by the horde of volunteers, at the point of attack.

What is needed at the present time is some outlined plan of organization. We have the roads and we have the automobiles. Should we be attacked we would have hundreds of thousands of volunteers. What we need is some organization whereby the owners and volunteers can get together to meet the threatened attack.

The Automobile Club of Southern California, an organization of 19,000 members, has announced itself as anxious to serve. The club organization is admirably adapted to the task with its splendid maps and data on the roads of this part of the country. The club plan is to form a nation-wide "League for Motor Mobilization," which would establish permanent mobilization bases.

These bases should be located not only at strategic points, but at points where motoring organizations are most active and most frequent as well, say club officials.

GOVERNING BOARDS.

Each base would be under order. SMALL ENOUGH.

the supervision of the govern-ment. This central board, ac-cording to data compiled by the automobile club officials, would be in a position to call into instant service, by tele-graph to the various bases, ap-proximately 1,000,000 motorists and a like number of private-ly-owned cars and trucks.

ly-owned cars and trucks.

A majority of this work is hould be accomplished through the motoring organisations of America, it is pointed out by Secretary S. L. Mitchell of the automobile club. Each organization is equipped with maps, road data and service cars, which would be available at all times for the use of the government. No more stupendous plan for a mation-wide movement to prepare for motor car mobilization has so far been advanced.

THREE BASES.

THREE BASES.

Three organisation bases for the Pacific Coast territory have been suggested—two more than have been accorded the Atlantic seaboard. The Pacific bases would be located at Portland, with the Portland Automobile Club as a nucleus; at San Francisco, with the California State Automobile Association as the governing body, and in Loc Angeles, with the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Other bases for mobilization which have been suggested are located at Dallas, Tex. with the Dallas Automobile Club; at Kansas City, with the Kansas City Motor Club; at Denver, with the Denver Motor Club; at New York City, with the Automobile Club of America; at Chicago, with the Chicago Automobile Club; at Atlanta, Ga, with the Alianta Automobile Association, and at Washington, D. C., with the Auto Club of Washington, D. C.

However, to complete the organization plan for motor mobilization, it is pointed out, that the automobile clubs of every State would play a most important part as sub-bases, while under their supervision and instructions would be the motor clubs and associations of the various cities of each State.

The bases specifically suggested would merely be the main headquariers for the assembling of the motoring thousands for a large district, and district to be marked off by States, counties and cities, each standing ready at a moment's notice to pour its cars and their owners into the central district base.

CHICAGO CUBS WILL BE READY.

Military Training Suggested

the New Plan.

Military Work.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 10.—The Chicago Cubr training camp at Pasadena, Cal., may be turned into a military training camp part of the time if the passibility of going to war with Germany increases. Manager Mitchell has wired President Weeghman that he was more than willing to have his players undergo a period of military training every day before and after the regular baseball practice on the field at Tournament Park.

STRONG FOR IT.

"I believe in military training," wired Mitchell. "It it meets with your approval I am willing that the members of the Chicago club be put under the direction of an army officer to teach them the movements and art of war while in the camp. It will not take up much time and might assist in getting the players into condition."

Mitchell's memage came from Boston unexpectedly and unsolicited as President Weeghman has not given the break with Germany much consideration as far as his team is concerned. He was surprised when the dispatch came and was more than pleased with the particitism manifested by his new leader. Mitchell lives in cultured Boston, where patriotism is one of the boastful traits of the people.

SURE! GO AHEAD.

sure! Go AHEAD.

"Of course, the plan is sanctioned by me," said Weeghman.
"but I don't believe it will be necessary to put the men under military training. Mitchell is to be admired for his suggestion. I do not know how the players will feel about the plan, but no doubt they gladly would drill two hours a day if they thought the chances were more than bright for a war with Germany. Personally I do not like sto think of war, but rather favor military training. If it would help get the players in shape I am for it."

HERE IS A MAN WITH THE RIGHT IDEA FOR TAKING CARE OF THE WILD, RECKLESS AUTOMOBILE DRIVER.

Pasadena, Cal., Feb. 7, '17.

Managing Editor Los Angeles Times.

No. 634 East California street, Pasadena, Cal.

I wish to congratulate you as well as commend your new policy of going after the FEW criminally reckless drivers of

I have a plan that will absolutely stop this menace, and do it within two or three weeks. I put it up to the authorities in Detroit, but polities prevented its use, but with a great newspaper fighting for it, it surely can be put through here.

It has been demonstrated here and in hundreds of cities that fines and even jail sentences have had but little effect,

It has been demonstrated here and in hundreds of cities that fines and even jail sentences have had but little effect, and any way, a policy of preventing is correct, while punishing is fundamentally wrong, for the punishment is not positive and in any event is but a loss of funds or temporary liberty.

Every human being knows when he is doing wrong, and also knows when he is taking a chance of injuring some one, and there is just one way of stopping him from taking this chance. NOT WAIT UNTIL HE HAS HAD AN ACCIDENT OR HARMED SOME ONE ELSE, but make the taking of a chance of so doing, a punishable offense, and the severest punishment possible; in fact, the only punishment that will stop it—to deprive the offending driver of the use of his car, or any other car, and here is a system (a practical system) of carrying out such a plan.

Have the Mayor appoint a committee of fifty, or even a hundred, reputable citizens, the safe and sane kind. Equip them with official blank postal cards. These men would be driving, walking; maybe in street cars; maybe sitting on porch at home, so in any event the would-be reckless driver who now only has to look out for a policeman in uniform, or a "plain-clothes cop" on a motorcycle, WOULD NEVER KNOW WHEN THE EYES OF ONE OF THESE COMMITTEEMEN WOULD BE ON HIM, so he would never feel really safe in "scorching."

Whenever a COMMITTEEMAN saw a driver "cutting a corner," passing on the wrong side, passing a street car discharging passengers, or speeding in a reckless manner any time, or any place, he would simply take out his official card, and note the number of the car, the time, and the place, and the incident. If possible get another witness to also sign the card, and mail it to the police department. The police department on receipt of card would turn to records, get name and address of owner and notify him by phone, or send an officer, to have him come to headquarters with the car. If it should be a case of owner and notify him by phone, or send an officer, to have him come to headquarters with the car. If it should be a case of mistaken number or identity, he would, of course, have the privilege of proving an alibi. Failing to do this, his car would be confiscated and a seal put on it by the city, and stored AT THE OWNER'S EXPENSE in a public garage. For the first offense, say loss of car for thirty days, for the second offense loss of license for all time. Personally, I would be for loss of license on the first offense, but maybe I am too radical. I am also for the French system of making every owner go to a school for drivers and pass an examination before being permitted to drive at all, but I know in this free and easy country, that such a law will never be passed. The system I have suggested does not need any special laws or even ordinances, for there is already in every city of this country an old ordinance against reckless driving, and it does not specify whether the driving be of a "crow-bait" horse or a thoroughbred, a goat cart, or a motor car. I reiterate, most men who are too young to feel responsibility, or too old to care a rap, or too intoxicated to either know or care will take a chance of a fine, or even imprisonment, but not one will take a chance of losing privilege of using a car, especially when the chance is almost a certainty by reason of a hundred men on the streets who only have to SEE, the driver TAKE A CHANCE of casualty.

Sincerely yours,

J. WALTER SCOTT, No. 534 East California street, Pasadena, Cali

WHAT DO "YOU" KNOW

A single order placed by the Idaho district manager of the Smith Formation of the Smith Formation of the Smith Formation of twenty-five freight ears to fill, it is announced by Wallace O. Gates, Pacific Coast manager, whose headquarters are in this city. The order was for 500 of the units that are used for converting pleasure cers into trucks, and as they are shipped twenty units to the carload the number of freight cars stated will be necessary.

This is the largost order yet received by the company. Gates says, but only indicates the remarkable growth that is being experienced in the demand for vehicles of this class.

The Haynes Twelve is a "Light Twelve" because in every day use it is best adapted for all travel conditions.

The problem of the automobile engineer has been the number of power impulses that he could apply to the crankahaft. In the six-cylinder motor the frequency of the impulses was increased and the lap shortened and in the eight the lap was eliminated. Freedom from vibration demands that the power impulses overlap and in this feature motor car production culminates in the twelve-cylinder motor.

The Super-Six is the greatest stock motor in the world, as proved by official

To match that motor there are six new Hudson bodies, each a masterpiece. The Limousine we picture is built by coach builders famous for 60 years.

It is a comfort car, with exquisite appointments, designed for all-year service. These bodies mark luxury's limit. The motor is the Super-Six, controlled by Hudson patents. It is so smooth-running, so vibrationless that it yields 76-horsepower. Yet the size is identical with other Light Sixes which yield but 42-

That means 80 per cent of added reserve power without added size or cyl-

These elegant bodies, with this Super-Six motor, give the Hudson unquestioned supremacy. No $5000 car can match it in performance, or excel it in comfort or appearance.

The building of motor cars is strictly a business propusition shorn of every vestige of sentiment—the builder puts the best that is at his disposal into his product and backs that up with the superior knowledge of engineering genius and time-consuming experience—but solely upon the performance of the car is it judged by the public.

The King 8 has been put to every conceivable gruelling test and has made good—look over this list of achievements or ask any owner—that is evidence enough.

recorded before an automobile is stolen, according to the club, are: The manufacturer's numbers of the motor and the car, and of the lighting, generator and starting system, as well as their make: also of the storage battery; deats and scratches on the car are recorded and a description of any work which has been done upon it also given and all extra equipment is tabulated.

This complete mass of information is then filed under the owner's name, and should his car be stolen it will only be necessary for him to telephone to the theft bureau at the club, and 500 copies of the information will be sent immediately to all police departments and county Sheriffs' offices on the Pacific Coast.

WOULD LOSE TIME.

WOULD LOSE TIME.

If this data were not so filed the motorist would lose about twelve hours of good time in looking up the various items needed for identification. Do you know your motor number, as well as those of all narts?

Identification of stolen automobiles has been the greatest stumbling block in the recovery of the cars, according to officials of the theft bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Statistics from police headquarters and from the club show that more than 50 per cent of the automobile owners in Southern California are unable to give an adequate description of their motor car when it is stelen.

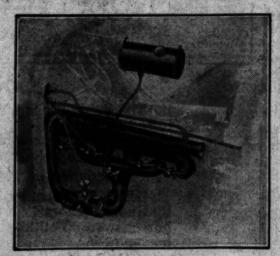

One of the most essential things in the identification of this kind of stolen property is the manufacturers number on the motor, and a large majority of owners are unable to supply this until twenty hours after the machine has been taken. It is usually impossible to secure the numbers of various important parts at all, say club officials.

BUREAU ESTABLISHED.

In order to remedy this condition the Automobile Club has definitely established, an identification bureau as a permanent department of the organization, which will be located at the Los Angeles headquartyrs, with sub-bureaus located at each of the twenty touring bureaus and thirteen branch offices throughout the southern part of the State.

It will operate on the theory of "locking the deor before the hores stolen." Blanks will be supplied tomorrow and thereafter to all motorists who apply for them at any of the bureaus or branches. ## A Worth While Record!

HIRTEEN months ago, J. A. Van Horn began using a stock Chandler touring car to carry the Los Angeles morning papers to Santa Barbara. Since that date he has driven 94,000 miles—think of it—94,000 miles in thirteen months; an average of 237 miles per day—every day. For 396 consecutive days he has made the run on fast schedule time, frequently carrying passengers in addition to the newspapers, and has never missed a single trip. This, we believe, proves beyond a doubt the absolute dependability of the Chandler Chassis, particularly the "Marvelous Motor."

Mr. Van Horn's sworn statement, based on carefully itemized expense account, shows an average of 15 miles per gallon of gasoline, and 12,000 miles per set of tires. This mileage, however, is not unusual. Thousands of Chandlers are doing it every day. Mr. Van Horn was not after a record, but, unknowingly, created one. This record is quite different from one made by a specially prepared car, driven by an expert, starting on a spectacular run, unannounced. The Van Horn Chandler stock car may be seen and ridden in any day. All Chandlers are essentially the same.

tements from a Few of Many Letters Received from Users of KEATON NON-SKID TIRES

"Inasmuch as the tires have gone far beyond my expectations, it is a pleasure for us to state to you, or any one else inquiring about tires, that it is absolutely impossible to make these tires skid under any conditions, and they have certainly solved the skid problem in a manner which will do away with chains."

Yours very truly, IRVING M. HELLMAN, Hellman Bank, Los Angeles, Cal.

"At the present time I am running some of your tires on my National and am exceedingly pleased. I have dispensed entirely with non-skid chains." S. ARONSON, Aronson-Gale Co.

"I cannot give the Keaton Tire too good a recommendation.
As for its non-skid qualities, can safely say it is the nearest perfect non-skid tire I ever used. They have given perfect satisfaction, and I am now on my fifth shoe for the rear wheels of my cgr."

(Signed) H. W. BALESTIER.

"After being compelled to use chains on a set of so-called nonskid tires, which resulted in the tread coming loose in places, later blistering up and finally coming off, I bought Keaton's. Since then I have run my Keaton Non-skid Tires over eight thousand miles, and today they hold much better than chains ever did. As for durability, they look as if I will get several thousand more miles wear out of them."

FRANK M. ADAMSON,
Harry A. Miller Mfg. Co., Los Angeles, Cal.

"Naturally I was skeptical when you first induced me to buy Keaton Tires, but now I am ready to say that the Keaton Non-skid Tire is by all means the best and only Non-skid on the market, and with all the hard work I have had this winter, I have not even thought of using chains. Truthfully I can say that I have been in places along with other cars where they have had to use chains, and skidded at that."

L. B. SHIELDS.

"The Keaton Non-Skid makes the use of chains absolutely ecessary."

LYNN C. BUXTON, Stearns-Knight Agency. "I am more than satisfied, not only with the non-skid effect, but with the durability as well, as I have never, since using your tire, found it necessary to use chains."

HAYNES LIGHT TWELVE ATTRACTS MOTOR FANS.

THE Haynes "light twelve," first to be seen in California and which reached Los Angeles last week, is attracting considerable attention at the salesroom of the Bekins-Speers Motor Company, Pico and Grand. The "twelve" is of the seven-passenger type and demonstrations, it is announced, are being made by appointment only.

The stack of orders that has made it necessary to operate the Hayner's plant overtime has until recently made it impossible for dealers to secure this new car. It was only after a visit to the factory that Froman Speers secured the first "light to the horizon, there is every indication to believe that the 1917 the secondary of the horizon there is every indication to believe that the 1917 the secondary of the Market Carlot of the horizon there is every indication to believe that the 1917 the accountry over, is to be a wonderful record breaker."

Such being the case, it must indeed be significant when we say the reception accorded to our new models has far surpassed anything of the kind that we have ever experienced.

At the earlier automobile shows it has amounted to a genuine ovation.

The Paige booths have been thronged with visitors from morning until night. Hundreds of disinterested men and women have personally sought out the officials of our company and congratulated them in the most glowing terms.

Seasoned motor car distributors from all sections of the nation have been equally lavish in their praise, and each day our mails are filled with communi-cations expressing the same enthusiastic approval.

So you can see we have reasons to feel proud—and do feel proud. We know, too, that every Paige owner will share this feeling with us when he first sees and rides in "The Most Beautiful Car

We want to tell you car owners what the opening of the New Firestone Branch Building in Los Angeles means to you. This building was dedicated January 31st. Hundreds of dealers and the executives from the Akron, Ohio, factory were present. The fact that it is the best-equipped tire distributing depot on the West Coast is interesting. But the essential point is that through this branch building, Firestone Tires are made more valuable Firestone Tires are made more valuable to you than ever before.

The huge storage space in the Los Angeles building, combined with a most effective distributing organization, enables us to give you any Firestone Tire promptly. A sudden run on tires of a particular size may be cared for by a telegram to Los Angeles.

The more difficult repairs of both pleasure car and truck tires can be cared for here.

It is as if the facilities of the great Akron factory were in Los Angeles.

Tire Quality, Prompt Delivery and Service, we can offer you in greater measure than ever before. "Most Miles per Dollar" takes on even a broader meaning through this new Firestone building.

Still it might be just as well for him to calm himself a trifle before the season starts. Otherwise President Baum may feel impelled to lam him on the bean with the official "black jack."

Henry Berry, his well-known dome polished to an effulgence befitting the occasion, arrived unexpectedly on the scene yesterday. Hen denied that his trip had any baseball significance, although it does relate to ivory. He explains that his favorite dentist lives here, and that he simply came down to have his teeth fixed. It would have been less expensive for him to send them down by mail. Hen is entirely satisfied with the Brown-Ellis-Koerner trade, and declares that it is Wolverton's intention to carry both men. Clarence Brooks, veteran catcher, has been sold to Dallas. The new Sain Francisco ball park which Berry is building and other things have served to stimulate interest in base-ball in that city. A few of the players worked out informally the other day, but their appearance was enough to draw more than 1000 bugs to the grounds. Recent charges against the Coast League got motifing but a laugh out of the blase San Francisco fans, who have followed the game closely and critically almost since gold was discovered in California.

Two Power Ranges

Extravagant Performance With Economical Operation

No longer need you forego—for reasons of economy—the pleasure of owning a big super-powerful car of the utmost class and distinction.

For now you may have power and speed in rare abundance without the expense it formerly took to operate the super-powerful cars in ordinary driving.

Two separate and distinct power ranges make the Peerless Eighty Horsepower Eight a car of "dual personality."

It has a total range of performance which hitherto has been able only in totally different and opposite types of cars—both my desirable but not previously to be had in combination.

A "Loafing" Range

We are on the Safe and Sane Side of this Question

OES it strike you as the common-sense thing to put high power in a motor car by means of a big, heavy, complicated engine and then have to build the whole car heavier to accommodate this extra power and weight?

Yet this is what you find in heavy cars todayadding weight to carry weight.

After all, what is the result? With big power comes excessive expense. Heavy weight eats up gasoline and tires, pounds the road, and the road pounds back on the car and the passengers.

High power is the wrong way to get ability. We say this because of what we know about the Franklin Car.

In the Franklin you will find, as we have found, the sensible way to get the most out of a car.

Instead of adding more power to move the car, the Franklin cuts down weight and makes it easy for the power to make itself felt.

This scientific-light-weight construction is the reason why the Franklin does so much for so little.

The motor car service we are selling in the Franklin is the kind that gives you a lot of pleasure and satisfaction, with the extravagance left out.

The Aluminum Six with Magnetic Gear Shift

The most startling revolutional motor car of the age—the Premier a new car—essentially new in mechanical conception—new in designnew in appearance—new in appeal. It is as different from the tradition motor car as day from night—embodies the most advanced ideas of engineering start.

Thas all the nervous, high-strung spirit of a thoroughbred—eager for the getaway, but is as easily handled as the docile family mare. No more wrestling with gears—the awkward shifting lever is eliminated—just push the button—the gears are shifted by means of a mar-just push the button—the gears are shifted by means of a marvelously simple and positive C-H magnetic gear shift (manufactured by the concern which supplies the U. S. Navy with most of the electrical control features on its battleships). This device makes every woman the equal of the most experienced driver—it's as easy for her to control the car as to turn on the lights at home.

Premier turns completely around, with a twist of the wrist, in a 39-foot circle. We are sure that no other full-grown, seven-passenger car can do this.

The Lynite aluminum motor is so light that there is scarcely any more resistance in steering Premier than in the sway of a violin bow. Two hundred and fifty-five pounds have been taken off the front wheels—think of that.

Premier's frame is eight inches deep frame in your present car is probably about three and or or four. Can you imagine ever getting squeaks or rattle car with a foundation like that? We could not have used massive construction without a Lynite motor—Lynite most scientifically compounded aluminum alloy in extension.

And in looks—you have seldom, if ever, Premier's equal. With its new bullet body lines and metal velour finish, it strikes the long-needed new potential.

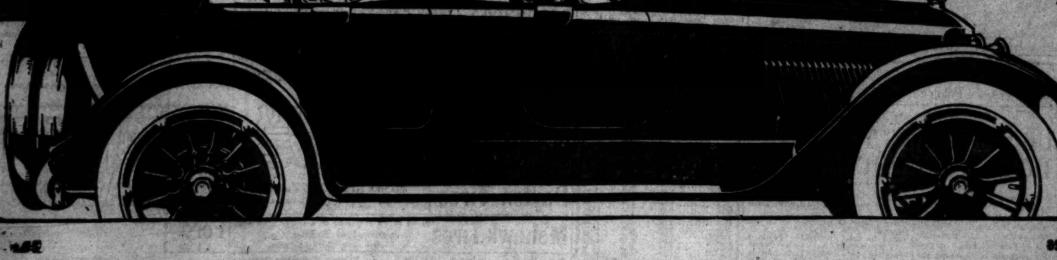

Jot these points down: 125½-inch wheel 72-horsepower at 3000 revolutions, 3245 pounds weights shipping platform, 58-inch Perfection rear springs, all detail, a dream of a car, and the most talked about suin America today.

See it on exhibition at the salesroom starting week. Check the points of its superiority—arrange for onstration early—as all indications point to a decided age in these marvelous cars selling at such an unpreceded low price.

DON'T be like the many who take the hardest path to grace and beauty. Learn esthetic dancing. Now is your opportunity to get free instruction. A close study of the poses shown will enable you to go thru the various movements. The exercises will not only make you more sylphlike, but they will prove invigorating to your mental powers.

But a last word of caution: If you would benefit mentally as well as physically by the exthetic dance, make play of it. So many of us are in need of diversion from our every-day activities. Yet when we play, we do it with so vigorous a will and way that it really isn't playing at all. Remember, if you would acquire grace, that grace of mind accompanies gruce of body. A squared jaw and an I'm-bound-l'lieget-it-right expression cannot be conducive to limber joints, responsive muscles and true

Why don't you rob him of his role and carry to your friends who do not see this page the good news that on it they can find a design for a centerpiece of the very size they've been looking for? And then don't

Compact Screens

Compact Screens

Did you ever think how necessary a thing a acreen is? One is needed beside the baby's crib, to shield him from draughts when he is being hathed, and as the child grows older the screen must grow too in order to perform its duty. There is one fault to be found with a screen, and that is that it takes up so much room. This is a serious matter in the modern houses, which are built on surprisingly small plans. The mother of invention has come to the rescue, however, and has brought forth acreens which are compact enough to suit any lover of spaceasys.

One screen fashioned for a child's room has a framework of white wood; its covering is Alice-blue denim. On the outer elde of the acreen storks are embroidered in white mercerized cotton. In a clever manner a blackboard is attached to the inner side of one section. Hinge attachments permit the board to be drawn out at a convenient angle for the child's use.

When the two sections of the screen are closed the whole thing can be carried about very easily, for the two plans can be hooked together and carried by means of a strap handle attached at the top.

Another screen is intended for an adult, and is very much higher than the one just described, it is composed of three sections and the inner one is deep enough to contain a wardrobe consisting of three drawers at the bottom and several hooks for coat hangers at

Luncheon Sets

Wise is the hosters who appreciates the value of an attractive function set. A pretty foundation on which to lay the various dishes and utensils used thruout the tuncheon will have a psychological effect on the guests' spirits and on their appetites.

A very unusual set for the luncheon table has been made of oyster-white linds. The runner is oblong, and the various dollies are square in shape. Each doily and the runner are brightened with an inch-wide border of eldrose lines. The border is set in half an inch from the edge of each article, and the space between is filled in with crescents embroidered solid in oil rose. The color can be changed to suit the color scheme of one's dining room. The set described carried out the aid-rose touches appearing on the china and in the furnishings of the room.

Damack function sets are very much in favor. These are made in round and square chapes, and are without any decoration, save for a hemstitched edge and an initial in the corner of each article making up the set. The idea suggests a way to make use of partiy worn tablectoths. While the all-white treatment is very satisfactory, a touch of color does not go amiss on the white background.

The Lure of the Orient A novelty shops at present will be rewarded with slimpses—maybe purchases—of a gorgeous display of things Japaness and Chinese, for the oriental spirit has entered truly into these odds and ends in which the woman who loves noveltles occasionally induises.

Embroidery thelassword to blouse Smartness

Jet Beads Decorate a Mourning Blouse

ONE of the salient features of the latest offering of blouses is the touch of handwork which lends character to every model. It would seem that the purpose of the blouse is no barrier; the colorful touch is added no matter whether the garment is to be worn colorful touch is added no matter whether the garment is to be worn with a sports suit or with a dressy suit. The collection of blouses shown on the page is indicative of the various ways in which the form of trimming may be used.

The blouse of brown chiffon is heavily decorated with embroidery in the form of yellow and black stitchery. The practical note of the blouse is a vest of white Georgette crepe, which decreases in size as it nears the neck line until the material forms only a piping. At any rate, there is sufficient white near the face to relieve the unbecoming effect which a dark color always has on one's complexion.

A pleasing variation of the peplum blouse is seen in the pale yellow model. The size of the peplum is particularly suitable for the woman who likes to accept new fashions in moderation. A clever use woman who likes to accept new fashions in moderation. A clever use of tucks has been made in the bottom and top of the sleeve, so that there is a pleasing fullness at the elbow. The hand touches which give the blouse distinction are bands of blue and yellow beads, which trim the cuffs and encircle the blouse. The soft frill of chiffon adds a distinctly feminine finish to the blouse.

Soutache braid in white and colors is increasing in popularity, and an evidence of its beauty is visible on the blouse of pink chiffon, self-colored braid being used to delineate an embroidery pattern.

Embroidery is also used to give an exclusive touch to a mourning blouse. Dull jet beads in two sizes appear on the blouse made with a white vest of unusual cut.

The simple cross stitch has proved itself a great favorite, and is employed effectively in connection with eyelets to give personality to a blue chiffon blouse with particularly good lines.
